

PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

Curious and detail-driven UX Designer and Researcher currently completing a BA in User Experience Design at UAL London, building on a strong academic foundation from MIT School of Design Pune. Grounded in rigorous user research and inclusive design principles, with hands-on experience conducting self-ethnographic studies, synthesising insights, and prototyping iteratively for real users. Passionate about designing experiences that are as accessible as they are thoughtful.

EDUCATION

University of the Arts London (UAL)

London, UK

BA (hons) User Experience Design

Sep 2024 - Jun 2027

- Year 1 — Conducted UX research into children's healthcare experiences, identifying critical gaps in sensory accessibility, synthesised findings into a problem statement and inclusive design direction · Conducted responsible design fieldwork at Kew Gardens, analysing how sensory clutter affects cognitive load · Applied observational skills to identify sound as a structural element in learning spaces and conducted quantitative field research across UAL's workshop block, synthesised acoustic data into a multi-layered paper-based infographic artefact.
- Year 2 — Delivered a live client pitch as part of a cross-functional team, developing stakeholder communication and project management skills · Identified wayfinding friction at Selfridges through self-ethnographic research; prototyped iteratively to deliver a tactile wayfinding device with 3D-printed sensory elements, validated with 10+ users
- Modules: Interaction Design · Visual Communication · Making as Enquiry · Responsive Design · Creativity & Curiosity · Design Cultures: Cities & Communities
